

DEUS • RESCUE

DEUS™ Vertical Rescue System Inspection Log

Descent device serial number: _____

Date initially put into service: _____

Date of Inspection
Inspector
Bolts and parts are tight
Control knob turns freely between "engaged" and "disengaged" positions
Carabineer attachment hole does not exhibit any damage
Brake wheel spins freely when control knob is in "disengaged" position
Brake wheel does not spin at all when control knob is in "engaged" position
Sliding cam moves freely
Brake wheel has no damage
Rear cover plate opens and closes freely and is not bent
Labels present and readable
No burs on rope path that can damage rope, and no burs anywhere on device to injure hands

If ANYTHING about the your vertical rescue system does not look right or does not work correctly, contact DEUS Rescue immediately for service and place the unit in "inactive" status until it has been rectified.

For factory reconditioning services, contact DEUS Rescue. Factory reconditioning includes replacement of worn parts, a complete inspection, and factory testing.

Do not trust your life - or the lives of others - to equipment that has not been properly maintained.

DEUS Rescue

Toll-free 866-405-3461
service@DEUSrescue.com
www.DEUSrescue.com